

Kerrisdale Mountain Railway & Museum

with BBQ Lunch

Take a ride back into history as we travel up the Hume highway via Kilmore and Broadford to the Kerrisdale Mountain Railway. BBQ Lunch at Kerrisdale. After lunch we will travel to Kinglake and visit the Flying Tarts Bakery.

In the 1950s' steam power was still 'King' on the railways and every boy dreamed of becoming an engine driver. Take a ride on the Kerrisdale Mountain Railway and see the Malcolm Moore, The Ruston and Hornsby Locomotives which were purchased and fully rebuilt.

The Flying Tarts bakery was spared after nearly 30 residents sheltering there and put out spot fires during the Black Saturday fires. Here you will have a chance to purchase some tasty treats. Then sit back and relax as we head home.
